

CUSTOM ORDER TERMS & CONDITIONS

Please read these terms carefully before placing your Prosix Sports custom uniform order.

IMPORTANT - CUSTOM MADE PRODUCTS

Our custom uniforms are prepared specifically for your team and may require artwork, material purchasing, printing, cutting, sewing, names, numbers, logos and other production work.

01

Order & Design Approval

By placing your order, you confirm that the submitted design, colors, logos, names, numbers, quantities, sizes and other order details are correct. Please review all information carefully before approval.

Custom Production

Once your design is approved, materials may be purchased and production may begin. Custom products are manufactured specifically for your order and may not be suitable for resale to another customer.

Cancellation Policy

Before design approval and material purchase, a cancellation request may be reviewed. After design approval, material purchase, printing, sublimation, embroidery, cutting, sewing, numbering or other production work begins, the order may not be cancelled and amounts committed to custom production may be non-refundable, except where required by applicable law.

Changes After Approval

Changes requested after approval may result in additional charges and a revised delivery timeline. The customer is responsible for costs related to materials or work already completed that cannot be reused.

05

Sizing, Names & Order Details

The customer is responsible for reviewing sizes, player names, numbers, spelling, quantities and shipping details. Please check every roster entry before placing the order.

06

Production Errors

If an item materially differs from the final approved specifications because of a verified Prosix Sports production error, we will review the issue and provide an appropriate remedy. These terms do not limit rights that cannot legally be waived.

YOUR AGREEMENT

By checking the agreement box during checkout and submitting your order, you confirm that you have read, understood and accepted these Custom Order Terms & Conditions.
